REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, July 2.—There was blood in the eyes of the Cardinals when they appeared on the diamond at Washington Park, Brooklyn, this afternoon, to meet the champions in the last of the series of games to be played in the East the present trip. Jesse Burkett, who was escorted from the grounds yesterday, was permitted to receive relations with his team and covered left field.

The intensely hot weather had a bad effect upon the attendance, and less than 1,000 saw the game. Mr. Sugden referred to today's game, and peace reigned.

The battle ended in a victory for the St. Louis team by a score of 4 to 2, the game being called after the first half of the eighth inning on account of rain. This makes the third successive victory for St. Louis over the champions in the series of four games.

St. Louis scored twice in the first inning on a base on balls given Hendrick, who went to second on McGann's hit to right, and scored on a wild throw by Dahben, McGann reaching third on the same bad throw. Padden then singled to right, scoring McGann.

In the second inning Nichols sent a pretty single to the right field. Powell bunted to Donovan, but the latter made an error, and scored on a wild throw by Dahben, McGann reaching third on the same bad throw. Padden then singled to right, scoring McGann.

Brooklyn succeeded in scoring its only two runs in the sixth inning on a drive to center by Kelley, a triple by Sheppard, which scored the former, and Daly's single scoring Sheppard.

Lake found him at an old town near Bangor suffering from the effects of rheumatism fever, which he had contracted in Boston the spring. He says he will be all right in a few days and join the team.

"I may be mistaken," says Hugh Jennings, but I feel sure the Philadelphia club will land in first place in the series in two weeks. If we reach there, they will never dislodge us. This may be a bit strong, but the Phillies have shown marked improvement since Jennings took charge of the initial cast.

Cornie Mack's brother, who was supposed to have been beaten until he was hit by Groundskeeper Murphy, is improving slowly, but surely, and there is now a fair prospect of his recovery.

Catcher Louis Criger's health is fast falling, and his friends fear that his athletic career will soon be over. He was shown to make the best of his time by securing such a strong contract from the Boston American League Club.

All the improvement in the Baltimore club is due to the fact that the Orioles have been forced to stop kicking and play ball. McGraw has admitted that he got the best of Ban Johnson, and Mike Donlin is in uniform on probation.

Amos Rusie is on good terms with the Cardinals, but he asked for his suspension without pay to build up his pitching record, showing, which he promised to do on July of their games to-morrow.

"Cupid" Childs will probably never be seen in a Chicago uniform again. His playing and batting have not been satisfactory to Tom Donohue, who has sent him to the East on account of his poor play. Childs has signed a youngster named Lotfus to play third base, and he may do well to get to the end of the line.

Frank Selee has signed a youngster, a lad named Murphy, who hails from New Haven, Conn., and is a member of the seven bingles the Bostonians were able to make off with in the season. He has not even had a chance in the field. His one hit was a cracking triple.

The New York players do not like the criticism which is printed about them in a New York paper. It is pointed out that they do not play the game behind Matthews, who they did early in the season, in consequence.

Billy Eversett, who was recently given his walking papers by Jimmy Manning of the Washington American League Club, has been sent to the Denver team of the Western League. Tom Brown resigned that position a week ago.

E. D. A base on balls is not credited as a hit. It does not count as a time at bat.

CORNELL CAPTURED PREMIER EVENTS AT POUGHKEEPSIE.

Won Varsity Race in a Thrashing Finish, Beating the Course Record by 51 Seconds.

COLUMBIA A CLOSE SECOND.

Courtney's Men Also Captured the Four-Oar Contest, Defeating Proud Pennsylvania by a Superb Burst of Speed.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 2.—Under an indigo sky, hung with lowering thunder clouds and rent with forks of vivid lightning, Cornell captured the premier event in this evening in the intercollegiate regatta, and, in a thrashing finish, beat Columbia by a length and lowered the record for the Poughkeepsie course by 51 seconds.

A strong ebb tide assisted Courtney's men to make this phenomenal time. Of the six crews in the race, all but Pennsylvania slipped second on the record, 19 minutes and 44.5 seconds, made last year by Pennsylvania's eight.

Cornell finished first, in 18 minutes 35.5 seconds, by two and a quarter lengths, with Columbia second, in 19 minutes 26.5 seconds, by a half length. Georgetown fourth, all four of these crews breaking the world's record.

IT WAS CORNELL'S DAY.

It was Courtney's day. His Cayuga Lake boys, before winning the varsity eight-oared race, had beaten Pennsylvania and Columbia in the four-oared contest, wrestling victory from the Quakers.

The Pennsylvania and the eight oared by "Josh" Ward fell the honor of winning the freshman race. This, too, had looked like another victory for Cornell. In a game race they had outdistanced the Quakers.

Columbia, while she won neither of the events, made hosts of friends by the superb struggle of her eight in the "varsity" race. Wisconsin, which so much was expected, came in only a fair third, with Georgetown, Syracuse and Pennsylvania far behind.

four years, or since 1885, when the course was first brought to public notice, through its selection for the triangular race between Cornell, Columbia and Yale.

On the following year (1886), Harvard, having disagreed with Yale and severed athletic relations, made a two-year agreement with Cornell and was accordingly, with the consent of Columbia and Pennsylvania, a member of the Poughkeepsie course, in which Cornell established a new world's record for the mile in 19 minutes 26.5 seconds.

In 1887 Harvard and Yale had made up their differences and were anxious to resume their old relations, but, as Harvard would not have its agreement with Cornell, it was unwilling to race in two different places, there was no alternative for Yale but to come to Poughkeepsie and enter a race with Harvard and Cornell, which she did, although Yale declined to compete with Columbia and Pennsylvania.

There were two races here that year, the first between Yale, Harvard and Cornell, and the second between Yale, Harvard and Pennsylvania, winning both events. In that year the Yale freshmen made on the course a new world's record, a mile in 19 minutes 26.5 seconds.

In 1888, Cornell and Yale came back to New London, Conn., where the institution, completed with them, rowing Columbia and Pennsylvania a water race at Poughkeepsie. Hence there was no racing at Poughkeepsie that year.

In 1889, Cornell, unwilling to row two races in two different places, declined to go to New London to meet Harvard and Yale, but the intercollegiate Association invited those colleges to enter the race on the Hudson between Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania. Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania accepted an invitation to enter the Cornell-Columbia-Pennsylvania race here and its place on the Hudson was taken by the Cornell-Columbia-Pennsylvania race.

Last year, Wisconsin came again, bringing the Cornell-Columbia-Pennsylvania race to the second in the university race. The University of Wisconsin was the only entry in the university race last year.

CORNELL AND PENNSYLVANIA DIVIDED HONORS IN PAST.
